INTERPROFESSIONAL EDUCATION
FOR FACULTY AT U-M

The Michigan Center for Interprofessional Education is a collaboration of the U-M health science schools: Dentistry, Kinesiology, Medicine, Nursing, Pharmacy, Public Health, Social Work, Health Sciences (UM-Flint), Nursing (UM-Flint), Education, Health & Human Services (UM-Dearborn).

“Interprofessional education occurs when students from two or more professions learn about, from, and with each other to enable effective collaboration and improve health outcomes.”

— World Health Organization (WHO), 2010
